

UConn Campus Resources

The following programs and services can be accessed by all students on the UConn, Storrs campus.

Academic Achievement Center (AAC)

The goal of the AAC is to help every student perform at their highest academic levels. Coaches in the AAC are successful UConn students, trained to work one-on-one with peers. Learn to fine tune your skills, increase your effectiveness, be intentional, and take control over your academic performance. Areas of interest include; study skills, memory techniques, time management, note taking, test preparation, goal setting, and more.

Academic Center for Exploratory Students (ACES)

ACES is UConn's academic advising program for students who want to explore the University's academic opportunities before deciding on a field of study and for students who must complete specific requirements before applying to a University program

Alcohol and Other Drug Services (AOD)

The Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Services coordinates prevention, intervention, education, and peer leadership opportunities in the area of substance abuse.

Asian American Cultural Center (AsACC)

The Asian American Cultural Center (AsACC) provides resources to enhance the University's diversity commitment through its recruitment and retention efforts, teaching, service, and outreach to the Asian American community on campus and beyond.

Center for Career Development (CCD)

Career Services' mission is to assist students in gaining and applying knowledge and skills to make well-informed career decisions by advising them through the process of identifying a major, exploring career interests, and securing post-graduate opportunities.

Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD)

The Center for Students with Disabilities seeks to accommodate students with documented disabilities to allow them equal access in their educational endeavors.

CLAS Academic Services Center (ASC)

Serves all students who have declared a CLAS major by authorizing procedures on behalf of the CLAS Dean (late add/drops, excess credit, program/plan changes, etc.).

Counseling and Mental Health Services (CMHS)

Counseling and Mental Health Services works with students to provide the highest quality clinical services to promote the emotional, relational and academic potential of all students.

Office of Diversity and Equity (ODE)

ODE ensures the University's commitment to diversity, multiculturalism, and social equity in teaching, research, outreach and administration.

Office of Student Financial Aid Services

The Office of Student Financial Aid Services has information and resources about financial aid at the University of Connecticut.

Dean of Students Office

The Dean of Students Office serves as an advocate for students and as a centralized resource for connecting students with appropriate university and community programs, offices and individuals. The office supports students in resolving educational, personal and other university concerns that affect the quality of their academic or community life and personal goals.

First Year Programs and Learning Communities

We provide guidance, opportunities, and resources for students to successfully engage with the University and become learners with a purpose.

H. Fred Simons African American Cultural Center (AACC)

The AACC promotes cultural preservation, leadership development, academic excellence, and intercultural communication through programs and activities that are designed to give students an appreciation and an understanding of the heritage and cultural experiences of African Americans and people of African descent in the United States and throughout the world.

Humphrey Clinic for Individual, Couple, and Family Therapy

The Humphrey Clinic is an extension of the Marriage and Family Therapy program in the Department of Human Development and Family Studies providing services to UConn students, staff, faculty and their families.

Library Services for Persons with Disabilities

The mission of the University of Connecticut Libraries is to provide every library patron with access to all library services, facilities, and collections.

Puerto Rican/Latin American Cultural Center

The Puerto Rican/Latin American Cultural Center's mission is to improve the status of Latinos and to promote awareness, understanding, and appreciation of the richness and diversity of Latinos and Latin American cultures.

Psychological Services Clinic

The Psychological Services Clinic offers an array of mental health services to individuals, children, and families in eastern Connecticut. Services are provided by graduate students under the supervision of licensed clinical psychologists and faculty members in the department of Psychology.

Off-Campus Student Services

Off-Campus Student Services, part of the Office of Student Services and Advocacy, offers resources and advocacy for UCONN students' off-campus living and/or commuting experience.

Police Department

The goal of the UConn Police Department is to efficiently provide quality police service to the community by promoting a safe environment through a police-community partnership, with an emphasis on mutual trust, integrity, fairness, and professionalism. For emergency situations, please call 911. For routine calls, please call 860-486-4800.

Quantitative (Q) Center

The University of Connecticut's Quantitative Learning Center (Q Center) is a resource to elevate the proficiency of students taking quantitative intensive (Q) courses across the undergraduate curriculum. The Q-Center provides peer tutoring, review sessions and innovative learning tools.

Rainbow Center

The Rainbow Center is committed to serving the LGBTQIA community, promoting education and healthy dialogue, and reducing the alienation and bias felt within the LGBTQIA community.

Senior Year Experience

Senior Year Experience promotes a successful transition for college students to the world beyond the University.

Speech & Hearing Clinic

The University of Connecticut's Speech & Hearing Clinic provides a full range of evaluation and treatment services to both children and adults with speech, language, and/or hearing disorders.

Student Health Services

The University of Connecticut Health Service is a health care facility which is fully accredited by the Accreditation Association of Ambulatory Health Care Facilities. SHS provides a multi-disciplinary team provides high quality, cost-effective Primary Care, Health Promotion and Educational Outreach.

UConn Connects

UConn Connects is an intervention program to help students learn the skills to be academically successful.

Veterans Affairs and Military Programs

Veterans Affairs & Military Programs has a full range of benefits and services for students that have served or continue to serve in the Armed Forces. These services include benefits processing, event programming and community outreach. Visit the VA Office in Arjona Room 340 or relax in the Veterans Oasis located in the Student Union.

Wellness and Prevention Services

Wellness & Prevention Services provides education, opportunities, information, and resources to the university community regarding health and wellness. WPS help students achieve balance and seek lifelong physical, emotional, social, environmental, intellectual, spiritual and cultural well-being.

Writing Center

The Writing Center is committed to critical inquiry and research. The Writing Center provides free tutoring and writing workshops designed to help students become stronger writers.

Women's Center

The mission of the Women's Center is to advocate, educate, and provide support services for the achievement of gender equity at the University and within the community at large.